NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A missionary who returned from Zululand before the late war gives the pronunciation of Cetwayo as "Tee-wayo."

Leadville already has three daily newspapers, four churches and a public school system; but there are, also, 108 gambling houses.

A woman goes about Grand Rapids at night with a lantern, declaring that she is a bride of heaven, and exhorting sinners to repentance.

A five-year old girl, left alone in a house at Holyoke, Mass., drank whiskey from a bottle that she found, got drunk, fell down stairs, and died.

Mrs. Sieg had a quarrel with some neighbors at Wright, Minn., and told her son, aged 12, to shoot one of them. The boy obeyed, and is to be put on trial with his mother on a charge of murder.

It has been discovered that the sermon plagiarized from the Rev. Dr. Parker of London by the Rev. Dr. Lorimer of Chicago, was also used by a Canadiana clergyman as an original dictation discourse.

She has separated from her husband, in England, a division of the property having been made, and she returns to this country next week—says the New York Herald of Mary Scott-Siddons.

A large box shipped on a railroad at Cleveland was found to contain a live man, a flask of whiskey, some sandwiches, and a kit of burglar's tools. It is supposed that he intended to rob the express car.

Pastor Curtis, of the Presbyterian church at Olean, Pa., likes to hunt and fish. His congregation gave him the choice between those sports and his clerical employment. He chooses the gun and rod.

Another national monument is to be erected in Germany—a statue of victorious Germania of colossal size. Competent critics, speaking critically, pronounce the execution of this work the finest performance of the kind that has been seen for many years.

The Rev. Dr. Cray, in the Christian Advocate, speaks of the Utes as "those dirty, bloody free-booters, whose highest hopes and ambition are in murder, rapine and scalps," and says that "one white agent's life is worth more than every Ute that breathes."

The Rev. S. T. Galbraith, a Methodist local preacher at Lemars, Iowa, reports that he and five other persons fell into a trance, while holding a prayer meeting, and saw visions of angels and devils, and that, on awakening, they were able to sing new tunes, which they had heard while entranced. A young woman of Smyrna, N. Y., had a dream many years ago, of eight men standing in a row before her, with outstretched hands. She interpreted this to mean that she would have eight husbands. Her seventh husband died lately, and, although she is now 84, she is confident that the dream will be fulfilled.

David Dixon and Mary Swinton were to have been married at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at Embarras, Wis. An hour earlier he and others were in her room where the finishing touches were being put on her toilet. An old pistol lay on her bureau. He supposed it unloaded, playfully snatched it at her, and shot her dead.

Opposite the new central station, in Berlin, Germany, a colossal hotel is building. It is to contain numerous and large suits of apartments, besides 500 single bedrooms, a theatre, two chapels, and a synagogue. Statues of celebrated travelers are to be found in the courtyards, and a large garden, with hothouses, will be connected with the building.

The uncommon charge of attempting to murder by starvation is made against a man and woman in San Francisco. They locked the woman's husband in a strong room, on the pretence that he was insane, and fed him next to nothing. Their object was to get his money and then marry. He was at the point of death, when rescued, but improved with proper nourishment.

Mrs. Margaret Robertson of Cooper Angus, Scotland, died recently, aged 107. She lived under three British kings and one queen. She talked with scorn of poor creatures who could not live over 80 or 90, which she declared to Sir Henry Thompson, the surgeon, was "nae age at a." The clay pipe was always in her mouth. "I've smoked 'n' days," she said, "it's had plenty of time to dae me ill, and it's never socht."

An Indian View of it.

The Cherokee Advocate, edited and published by Indians, very truly suggests, in some comments upon the letter written by Miss Rose Meeker, in which she speaks of the Utes as "red devils," that "if you feel toward an Indian that he is a red devil, that you will treat him as such, and if you treat him as such he will 'come at you' in the same way." The Advocate is "driven to the conclusion, reluctantly, that Agent Meeker was in collusion with the Governor of Colorado in a deep laid scheme finally to drive the Utes from that fine country occupied by them, and granted to them by the Government," and that the ploughing of the fine pasture upon which the Utes had set their hearts for grazing purposes was deliberately attempted with a view of provoking an outbreak.

In Praise of Rat Pie.

Rev. J. G. Wood, the English naturalist, in a recent lecture thus answered an inquiry in regard to the proper method of making rat pie, which he claimed was a dish fit for any epicure. Rat pie is made precisely the same as rabbit pie. The cook should be careful to procure as fine rats as possible, cut off their tails, skin, dress and wash them, then cut them in four pieces and add a few pieces of fat pork. When cooked and cold the pie is full of most delicious jelly. I have often been dining with friends when they had the most delicious viands on the table untouched, while every scrap of the rat pie had been devoured.

A Lord Sets a Good Example.

Lord Truro, whose residence is at Falmouth, not far from London, has just afforded an example of funeral simplicity. A few days ago his wife died, and his lordship having caused to be made a plain coffin, lightly constructed, so as not to arrest the process of natural decay, had it interred in a grave dug in the lawn which fronts the house, at a spot selected by the deceased lady during her lifetime. The grave is about four feet deep and a marble monument will mark its position.

The GAZETTE has twice as large a circulation as any other paper in Washoe county. Hence it is an excellent advertising medium.

AN ATTEMPT TO SUPPRESS NEWS.

In the examination of Charles Gray on the charge of grand larceny, now in progress, the evidence has all been taken down in writing for the court. The GAZETTE intended to publish a copy of the official record of the testimony, and therefore had no reporter in constant attendance during the examination. This morning, by consent of the court, a reporter of this paper proceeded to copy the evidence, when District Attorney Bowman interfered to prevent its publication. Bowman demanded of the court that the reporter should be denied access to the testimony, saying that he did not want it published. The court acceded to the District Attorney's demand.

District Attorney Bowman, to suit his own purposes, thus endeavored to shut out from publication news of interest to the people of this town. Certain testimony submitted in the case of Tong Wah and Ah Quong, recently tried for an attempt to bribe Bowman, was published in the GAZETTE at the time. The publication of that evidence was distasteful to the District Attorney, and has evidently prejudiced him against publicity in cases in which he is interested.

Should the case of Gray not be presented to the Grand Jury, the public, having read the evidence submitted on the examination, might wonder why it had been dropped. It might be possible that District Attorney Bowman thought of this contingency when he tried to suppress the news this morning.

If Major Reno were in the town which bears his name he would probably be introduced to the famous target bucket. Reno will have to change its name if the Major continues to scandalize it.—Stock Report

This town was named to give, if possible, additional honor to the name of the gallant soldier who fell at the battle of Antietam, and not with any thought of the Major, who seems equally unfit to bear the name or uniform of a United States soldier.

Wayne township, in Ohio, contains a tract, Big Woods, the inhabitants of which lead a somewhat uncivilized life. A party of masked men from this locality lately whipped two thieves severely, and then posted the following: "Resolved, that courts be a useless expense; and hereafter the Council of Safety is going to punish all scoundrels like they deserve."

A Swiss workman named Kapin has exhibited at Chaux de Fonds a clock which indicates the day of the week and month, the signs of the zodiac, the moon's phases, and the hour of sunrise and sunset. The pendulum is a barometer. The clock strikes the quarters, and at every hour it plays one of eight tunes, for any one of which it can be set.

How to Save Money.
Instead of going to a doctor for a prescription, if you have Bright's disease, Diabetes, Pain in the back and loins, Smarting, Inflammation, Catarrh, Bricksburn deposit, or any trouble of the Kidneys or Bladder, buy a bottle of Dr. MEDICINE'S NEPHROTON, the great Kidney Compound. It is the most wonderful prescription ever compounded for these troubles. Messrs. Abrams & Carroll, wholesale druggists, say: "We regard Nephroton as the best Kidney and Bladder Remedy in the market." Woodward, druggist, Portland, Oregon, says: "Everybody speaks highly of it." Childs, druggist, Portland, Oregon, says: "Sold lots of it; it always does the work." Many have been cured of obstinate kidney complaints after the doctors have given them up. A distinguished scientist once said: "No man with a strong and healthy stomach ever committed suicide;" and yet many are suffering the tortures of the damned with Dyspepsia, when a single bottle of Dr. MEDICINE'S English Dandelion, Liver and Dyspepsia Pills will give relief, and, if persisted in, will cure the worst case of this distressing trouble. This pill cures Torpid Liver and Biliousness, regulates the bowels, removes pimples from the face, cures sallow complexion, foul breath, sick headache, heartburn, pain in the sides and back; is sugar-coated, and GUARANTEED TO BE PURELY VEGETABLE. It acts directly upon the coating of the stomach and on the liver; can be taken in any climate—wet or dry weather. Beware of imitations. The genuine has an engraving of a lion on the outside wrapper. Price 50 cents. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker, druggists. Oct 8
